SAJJAN DHALIWAL

Sajjan Dhalivwal, founder of Jas-Am, Inc. began his career as a residential builder in 1985. A Mechanical Engineer by profession, his home building started as a hobby and developed into a passion. Now Jas-Am has an impeccable reputation in the building industry for building elegant, high end, custom homes that reflect innovative designs and creative features. We engage homebuyers completely in the construction process and we are always available to ensure your concerns.

For the traditional connoisseur this is an exquisite find. The main level features a family room with adjacent sunroom as well as a main level guest suite. Upstairs you'll discover a spacious master suite, three additional guest suites, recreation and hobby rooms with computer loft all accessed by dual staircases. These features and more make this a perfect family home.
